

AGILETV AND CANAL+ GERMANY LAUNCH B2B IPTV PLATFORM

AgileTV is partnering with CANAL+ Germany to introduce “The Entertainment Hub,” a B2B IPTV platform for operators in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland. This initiative aims to simplify TV service delivery, enhance efficiency, and provide a competitive content strategy. AgileTV will manage technology, while CANAL+ Germany will handle content rights and marketing. The partnership is expected to redefine the white-label TV business model, allowing operators to focus on broadband while AgileTV ensures seamless TV service.

DIGI COMMUNICATIONS SECURES €54.76M FOR EXPANSION IN ROMANIA AND PORTUGAL

Digi Romania has obtained two export credit notes totaling €54.76 million to enhance its network in Romania and Portugal. The loans will mature in 2025. Additionally, Digi Spain Telecom secured a €275 million credit facility to refinance debt and fund capital expenditures in Spain. Digi Communications continues to expand its telecommunications footprint across multiple European markets.

DAZN COMPLETES FOXTEL TAKEOVER; BRAND TO REMAIN STANDALONE

DAZN has acquired Foxtel Group, maintaining Foxtel’s brand identity and content lineup, including AFL and NRL. News Corp retains a minority stake. The acquisition enables DAZN to expand into Australia while leveraging Foxtel’s strong market presence. CEO Shay Segev emphasized the strategic growth opportunity, while Foxtel CEO Patrick Delany highlighted the benefits of DAZN’s global scale and technology. The transition will be phased to ensure a smooth integration.

MFE CONFIRMS TAKEOVER OFFER FOR PROSIEBENSAT. 1 AT €5.74 PER SHARE

MFE-MediaForEurope has confirmed its voluntary takeover bid for German broadcaster ProSiebenSat.1 at €5.74 per share, the statutory minimum price set by Germany’s BaFin.

The offer includes €4.47 in cash and 0.4 MFE A shares per ProSiebenSat.1 share. The move aligns with MFE’s strategy to expand its stake in the German-speaking media market. The offer will be launched upon BaFin’s approval, with further details to be published on MFE’s website.

VIRGIN MEDIA O2 EXPANDS FAST OFFERING

Virgin Media O2 has bolstered its entertainment line-up by adding two new Rakuten TV FAST (Free Ad-Supported Streaming Television) channels to its TV service: Rakuten TV Top Movies and Rakuten TV Action. These new channels will be fully integrated into Virgin Media’s Electronic Programme Guide (EPG) and accessible through voice search.

They join the existing roster of 32 FAST channels available to Virgin TV customers, which already includes fan-favourites like DAZN Women’s Football, Hell’s Kitchen, and Red Bull TV. The additions are part of Virgin Media’s growing FAST strategy, giving viewers a flexible and free streaming option alongside traditional linear TV. ■
